the order of dismissal but the Dy. Commr (Mr. R.K. Venkatanandiengar) passed an order declining to interfere in the matter.

He next appealed to the Inspector General of Police on the 27th January 1902, and was given an endorsement to the effect that as it was reported that the Petitioner had been dismissed for having unauthorizedly absented himself, he should represent his case to the Dy. Commr.

The Petitioner now appeals to Govt against the above order and prays for reinstatement in Service.
